March 9th. 1933.

Mrs. L. C. West,
Panama City, Florida.

Dear Madam:

Relative to the $4,500.00 mortgage on your home place, dated September 1, 1930, maturing September 1st. 1933 (next September), you will remember last August 20, 1932 I read to you a portion of a letter received from Mrs. Carey as follows:

"I trust you will make it clear to Mrs. West that I shall not renew the loan."

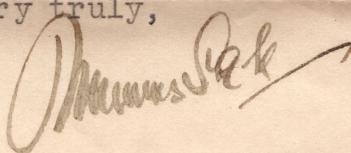

I have a notation in my file of having read that portion of Mrs. Carey's letter to your.

Allow me to advise that it is Mrs. Carey's wish that you pay off this loan of $4,500.00 on its maturity date of September 1st. 1933. The purpose of giving you the notice on August 20, 1932 was to give you plenty of time to arrange to pay off this mortgage at its maturity date and likewise this cautionary letter is mailed to you for the same purpose.

I believe you told me when the moratorium was lifted, or as soon as you could, you would arrange to pay the $135.00 interest which was due on the 1st. instant.

Yours very truly,

TS:f
